JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN. TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16 1897

NUMBER 282

A BIG RACINE FIRM GOES TO THE WALLCLOAK FACTORY SEIZED BY THE SHERIFF.

Assets Are More Than Three Times The Amount of the Liabilities, Which Figure Up to $90,000—Result of Chicago Bank Failure—Other State Specials.

Racine, Wis., Feb. 16.—[Special]—Just before noon today Sheriff Wagner attached E. A. Lienger & Co.'s cloak factory on claims of about $92,000. The first attachment was in favor of Benjamin M. Goldberg, of Milwaukee, for $6,800; Louis Stegnitz, New York, $7,500; E. A. Price, New York, $7,500. The liabilities are estimated at $90,000; assets at $300,000. The failure of the Chicago National bank was partly responsible for the trouble.

GENERAL BRAGG'S BIRTHDAY.

He Will Be 70 Years Old Saturday and Receive His Friends.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Feb. 16.—Next Saturday Gen. Bragg will have reached his seventieth birthday. On that day the general will be "at home," and will be glad to meet his old friends and receive their congratulations. The day will be made one which the general will long remember.

The State Death Roll.

Portage, Wis., Feb. 16.—Thomas Wilson, long time resident of the county, died at Pardeeville yesterday, aged 70 years. Mrs. Fred Brancel died Saturday at her home near Briggsville.

Ripon, Wis., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Marie Graf, resident of this city for a quarter of a century died today.

Brillion, Wis., Feb. 16.—Elizabeth Fox is dead. She and her husband were among the first settlers of Brillion.

Palmyra, Wis., Feb. 16.—Peter Vandenberg, aged eighty-four years, a Palmyra pioneer, is dead of paralysis after a short illness.

Stevens Point, Wis., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Andrew P. Jenson and Franz Huber died here.

Plainfield, Wis., Feb. 16.—William Wood, a resident of this town since 1865, died aged eighty-three.

Kaukauna, Wis., Feb. 16.—Richard Montel, aged ten years, fell dead while at play with his companions.

Hudson, Wis., Feb. 16.—Mrs. A. E. Rickard, a pioneer of this city, aged eighty-four years, died of old age.

Killed By Falling Trees.

Grantsburg, Wis., Feb. 16.—Samuel Aamodt was struck with a tree at Clarke's camp today. He died while being taken here. In the neighborhood of $500 in currency and checks was found sewed in his clothing.

Tonawha, Wis., Feb. 16.—Joe Reil working in Fred Hansen's camp at Squirrel Lake, while felling a tree, was struck in the side. He was brought to the Sister's hospital and died this morning.

Burglars at Madison.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 16.—The house of Capt. John S. McNaught on Pinckney street was entered by burglars while the family was at church. The thieves secured a considerable amount, including a gold watch valued by Capt. McNaught, it having been presented to him by his company in the war of the rebellion.

Will Work At Cut Wages.

Menasha, Wis., Feb. 16.—The Woodworkers' union has decided, in view of the hard times, to accept the terms offered by the company, a reduction in wages, provided a reasonable scale and steady employment is offered.

May Buy the Street Railway

Eau Claire, Wis., Feb. 16.—H. N. Bates and Curtis E. Applegard of Boston, are here considering the advisability of buying and operating the Eau Claire Electric street railway, now in receivers' hands.

Mistaken For a Lynx.

To nahawk, Wis., Feb. 16.—John Featherston was going through the thick timber he was taken for a lynx and received a charge of buckshot in the leg by a companion. A punishment will be necessary.

GROVER SAYS REFORM IS AMPLE

President Thinks That the Cubans Have All That They Deserve.

London, Feb. 16.—A dispatch to the Times from Madrid says that the papers publish the most optimistic reports concerning the attitude of the United States government. It is stated that the Duke of Tetuan, Spanish minister for foreign affairs, has received a telegram from Minister De Lome affirming that President Cleveland and Secretary of State Olney consider the Cuban scheme as ample and liberal as could be desired by the most exacting. This opinion, according to Minister De Lome, is shared by the chief public men of America, including President-elect McKinley. Minister De Lome is also reported to have said:

"The Cuban question may be considered dead so far as the United States congress and public opinion in America is concerned. The government is prudently reserved upon the subject, but I am able to state that the report as indicated above is approximately correct."

ANTI-FUSION LAWS.

Iowa Republicans Suspect that They Ought to Act Cautiously.

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 16.—A fight will probably be made by Republican senators to reconsider the amendment to the election law that kills fusion. Senators Healy, Cheshire, Garst, Ellis and others will attack it in the hope of having it reconsidered.

It is now seriously alleged the Australian ballot law does not apply to cities under special charters in Iowa. Since the Supreme court decided that the mulct law was void, the belief is unanimous that the Australian ballot law would not stand the test of the courts, as to its application in these cities. The defect will be remedied.

WANTS ARMOR PLATE JOB.

Illinois Steel Company Can Save Money for Uncle Sam.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Armor plate for the vessels of the United States navy may be made in South Chicago before long. This probability hinges on the fate of a bill introduced in Congress Monday by Representative Lorimer, which directs the secretary of the navy to make contracts for protecting plate for war vessels for a period of twenty years at a rate not exceeding $240 a ton. This bill was introduced at the suggestion of J. W. Gates, president of the Illinois Steel Company, which concern will guarantee to construct plant for the manufacture of the heavy material if it is given the contract.

At present the price paid by the government for armor plate for its vessels of war is $563 a ton, or more than twice as much as the Chicago company is willing to make it for.

Trade Relations with Canada.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 16.—A statement which Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Davies have given on their return from Washington says that they did not go there to negotiate a treaty, but to arrange to have commissioners appointed at an early day by both countries to consider the whole question of trade relations between the two countries. The Canadian ministers say there is no doubt about the desire at Washington that such a commission should be appointed.

Fighting Near Benin City.

London, Feb. 16.—The papers publish telegrams stating that the British naval expedition advancing toward Benin City for the purpose of punishing the King of Benin, murderer of Consul Phillips' party, had met with strong opposition. Commander Pritchard was killed in fighting at Sapelo.

Million Dollars for Yale.

Leroy, N. Y., Feb. 16.—By the death of William Lampson, a banker of this place, a large property, said to be valued at about $1,000,000, has been bequeathed to Yale University, of which Mr. Lampson was a graduate about 1860.

Burglar Shoots a Professor.

Carbondale, Ill., Feb. 16.—Prof. S. E. Harwood of the Southern Illinois Normal University was shot by a burglar who entered his room about 1 o'clock Sunday morning. His wound is not considered fatal. The burglars escaped.

Banker Held for Murder.

Batavia, N. Y., Feb. 16.—Howard C. Benham, the banker of this place, has been held to await the action of the grand jury, being charged with murder in the first degree in having caused the death of his wife, Florence J. Benham, by means of poison.

Killed by Jealous Husband.

Montgomery, W. Va., Feb. 16.—G. L. Morris was shot by Irving Rigg at Deep Water, and is dead. Rigg's wife was visiting a neighbor, with others, including Morris, when Rigg entered and fired without warning.

Shot by White Caps.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 16.—W. Grayson, a Sevier County farmer, was called from his house and shot to death by a gang of White Caps. Pat Matthews, a brother-in-law of Grayson, was arrested.

Payne's Friends Are Confident.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 16.—The Milwaukee friends of Henry C. Payne feel very confident that he will be invited to enter M'Kinley's Cabinet.

CANEA NOW UNDER FOREIGN FLAGSTHE POWERS HAVE AT LAST TAKEN ACTION.

Troops Landed From the Warships of Five Nations To Protect the City—Conference at Paris Decides to Maintain Peace—Turkish Merchantmen Are Stopped.

Athens, Feb. 16.—Troops from the foreign men-of-war have landed at Canea. The Russian, French, English and Italians each furnished 100 men; the Austrians fifty. With the consent of the Turkish authorities the whole detachment under the command of an Italian officer, similar to the second detachment, commanded by a French officer, will be held in readiness to land. Russian, French, English, Italian and Austrian flags have been hoisted on the ramparts of the town. The commander of the Greek squadron has been notified of their landing.

Relying to the collective note of the powers, the Grecian government has declared that its intervention in affairs in Crete is justified by the massacre there, and that it is not due to a desire to disturb the island. The Greek government announces that it is determined to continue to dispatch troops for the purpose of restoring order.

Great excitement prevails here. The reserves of 1872-3 have been called up in order to rejoin their colors within forty-eight hours.

Two steamers full of insurgents started for Crete at midnight. The rebels on the island are divided into three bodies. They are commanded, in the vicinity of Retimo, by a major of the artillery; in the vicinity of Canea by a captain of the artillery. All of these commanders are ex-officers of the Greek army.

TO MAINTAIN PEACE.

Announced at Paris that Attempts of Greece Cannot Prevail.

Paris, Feb. 16.—It is semi-officially announced here that all the powers will firmly persist in the agreement to maintain peace, and the attempts to Greece to disturb it cannot, therefore, prevail. According to a dispatch received here from Athens the Russian minister to Greece has openly declared that Russia is opposed to any scheme for the annexation of Crete by Greece. Finally, it is said that all the representatives of the powers at Athens have discussed complaints against the Hellenic government in regard to the measures taken to interrupt telegraphic communication between them and their governments for over twenty-four hours.

Turkish Merchantmen Are Stopped.

Cologne, Germany, Feb. 16.—A dispatch to the Kolinische Zeitung (Cologne Gazette) from Canea says that the Greek warships are stopping the Turkish merchantmen.

BOLD PLOT EXPOSED.

Sensational Indiana Trial—Men Implicated Have Confessed.

Marion, Ind., Feb. 16.—The conviction and sentence of two "green goods" swindlers here Saturday, a sensation in itself, has uncovered a whole crop of sensations. Four men have been arrested for jury bribing, John C. Evans and John W. Crum, the aforesaid "green goods" swindlers; H. J. Paulus, their chief counsel and the leader of the Grant county bar, and Lancaster D. Baldwin, associate counsel for the defense at the trial. Other arrests, estimated anywhere from two to a dozen, are expected.

Grief Matthews and Jim Peters, two of the tools used in the attempts on the jury, have confessed. More than 100 witnesses have been subpoenaed to testify against the accused. This town has not been so excited over anything since the day it was discovered Marion was located in the natural gas belt.

AGAINST MONETARY CONFERENCE.

Arguments Made in Committee by Mr. Fowler of New Jersey.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The house committee on coinage Monday took up again the discussion of the bill for an international monetary conference.

Representative Fowler (N. J.) spoke in opposition to the projected conference. He replied to certain arguments made at an earlier meeting by Mr. Newlands (Nev.) upon the effect of the demonetization of silver on the railroad business of the United States. Railroad failures hadn't been confined to the United States in recent years, Mr. Fowler declared. Mr. Towne (Rep., Minn.) inquired whether the silver-standard countries had suffered as much from such cause as the gold-standard countries. To this Mr. Fowler replied that the silver-standard nations had already reached the bottom level in business, and if they moved at all, could only move upward.

When Mr. Fowler stated that the business collapse had culminated in 1893, Mr. McClure (Ohio) inquired what would be the effect upon a country in the state of collapse of ceasing the yearly issue of $50,000,000 of currency expended for silver under the Sherman act. Mr. Fowler replied that $50,000,000 was but a bagatelle in the yearly business of the United States, and that the repeal of the Sherman act had removed the principal cause of business uncertainty.

Replying to Mr. Newlands' argument upon the effect of the fall in wages of Japan and China from the demonetization of silver, Mr. Fowler said that a fall from 15 to 7 cents in Japanese wages was immaterial so far as the financial question was concerned. That

MORGAN THE WINNER OF THE ARGUMENTALABAMA SENATOR GAINS A VICTORY.

His Motion To Abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty Considered—Arguments for and Against Monetary Conference—Sundry Civil Bill Is Passed.

Athens, Feb. 16.—The senate was in executive session most of Monday, but the open session afforded sufficient time for a sharp controversy. Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) called up his resolution for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and started to make a speech. There were objections from several sources. Mr. Culom (Rep., Ill.) wanted to go on with an appropriation bill. Mr. Chandler (Rep., N. H.) desired to speak on his resolution as to bimetallism. There was sharp sparring for precedence until Mr. Sherman (Rep., O.) interposed a point of order against Mr. Morgan on the ground that his resolution, being of a joint character, could not be considered in the morning hour. This precipitated an unexpected storm. The presiding officer, Mr. Stevenson, being in the chair, referred to the rules and promptly sustained Mr. Sherman's point of order.

"I appeal from the decision of the chair," said Mr. Morgan, calmly, "and I will debate that question of appeal. I am not willing to stand here and be victimized by the chair and by the senator from Ohio."

Mr. Stevenson rose from his chair, and in sharp tones responded: "The chair has no disposition to victimize the senator from Alabama. The chair is enforcing the rules as he finds them."

The vice president emphasized the word "victimize," and there was silence of amazement at the rapid exchange.

Finally Mr. Morgan withdrew his appeal, and a vote was taken on Mr. Morgan's motion to proceed with the Clayton-Bulwer resolution. Unexpectedly, Mr. Morgan carried his point as against the opposition which was understood to be favorable to going into executive session on the arbitration treaty. The vote was very close, being 32 yeas to 31 nays.

On the announcement of the vote Mr. Morgan arose, smiling and triumphant, and was about to begin, when Mr. Hoar (Rep., Mass.) interrupted with the point that this was a matter properly before an executive session. Under the rules suggested of this character compelled the senate to go into executive session, and at 12:30 the galleries were cleared and the doors closed.

The executive session lasted until 4 o'clock, when the doors were opened and the legislative work resumed.

The bankruptcy bill, which is the unfinished business of the senate, was taken up, and the measure read at length. Mr. Nelson (Rep., Minn.) offered an amendment for the entire senate amendment, and then the bill went over.

The conference report on the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was agreed to.

A further conference on the agricultural appropriation bill was directed.

The senate then turned to private pension bills, and twenty-four bills were passed, thus clearing the pension calendar.

Mr. Quay gave notice that on Thursday he would call up the house bill authorizing the appointment of a non-partisan commission to collect information and to consider and recommend legislation to meet the problems presented by labor, agriculture and capital.

TO OUST A CORPORATION.

Indiana Senate Likely to Pass the Citizens' Street-Railway Bill.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 16.—The lower house of the Legislature spent most of Monday discussing the medical bill. Many amendments, most of them intended to strengthen the bill, were agreed to and it was recommitted. The bill proposes to establish a state board of examiners from which all persons who practice medicine must secure a license. The special object is to drive out traveling specialists. The test votes in the house indicate that the bill will pass.

Mr. Nicholson offered a resolution requiring the temperance committee to report his anti-quart-shop bill by Wednesday, but the house adjourned before action on the resolution was taken.

The senate spent nearly all day on the bill with which the city of Indianapolis proposes to oust the Citizens' Street Railroad Company when its franchise expires in 1901. It is said that the company has already spent $50,000 trying to prevent the passage of the bill. The bill was advanced to engrossment, and unless the senators change their minds it will be passed by that body. It will go through the house with ease.

will be taken to Milton Junction for burial. M. C. Euling attended the farmers institute at Edgerton the past week. Harry VanGelder and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a bounding boy. Mother and son doing well. Some of our farmers are talking of raising a few acres of tobacco the coming season. Mrs. Frank Christman is visiting with her father. The Royal Neighbors added one more to their number at their last meeting. Cecelia Fonda is spending a few days with her uncle at Rosco, Ill. The post office will be opened on Sundays from 12:30 to 1:30 for the accommodation of the patrons. Bert Van Gilder is putting up ice for handling fresh meats this summer. Mrs. Wm. Truesdall is visiting relatives in Rockford. Charles Truesdall left this place on Saturday for Racine. He will work for the J. I. Case Co. George Dean is now in Beloit. Lyman Steadwell from Janesville was in this place one day the past week. Mountell Kemmerer is not as well. He has been having a poor spell for the last week. All hope he will soon recover and be on his feet again. Some of our young people took in the social at the Turtle ball Friday evening. Thornton Reed and wife, and Ham Raymond and wife were visiting relatives in this place on Friday last.

FOOTVILLE SENT PRIZE BUTTER.

Factory Men Feel Good Over Winning the Trophy—Other News.

Footville, Feb. 16.—George Doers, the popular butter maker at the Center creamery, carried away the sweepstakes at the meeting of the State Dairymen's association held at Edgerton last week, the prize being fifty dollars. Osburn Hubbard's package of butter, from Footville creamery, scored 97 points. R. R. Carlson, proprietor of both these creameries, feels as though a feather has been placed in his cap as well as in the headgear of his competent factory men. We see posters for the People's Lecture Course concert, Friday evening, February 19, are up. A large attendance is expected, if the roads and weather are favorable. A great part of the programme is foreign talent. Every one is anxious to hear the blind orchestra, who we know will please everyone. Tobacco buyers are thick caused, we suppose, by the nearing of the 4th of March when Major McKinley takes hold of the affairs of government. A sleigh load consisting of the (A) class in Mr. Henry's school room took a pleasant sleigh ride to Beloit Friday. The lecture at M. E. church last Thursday evening by Rev. Updike, D. D., treated more the life and character of John Ruskin than on "Social Facts and Forces." There was a good attendance. Dr. George Snyder, of Baraboo, is in town spending a few days with his brother A. J. Snyder and his sister, Mrs. W. Cory. Mrs. W. J. Owen who was reported on our sick list is still confined to her bed but we are pleased to say is gaining. Special services at the Christian church are still in progress. Mr. and Mrs. I. U. Fisher and John Danz attended the charity ball at Evansville Friday evening.

CENTER MEN ARE HAPPY, TOO.

They Also Appreciate the Fact that Good Butter is Rewarded.

Center Feb. 16.—What's the matter with Center? When the county wants good stuff they come here. As usual the "center creamery butter" took the "sweepstakes" prizes at the State Dairy Association meeting last week, and George Doer has grown "steep" inches in consequence. Several Center families are preparing exhibits for the Janesville mid-winter fair, and if riley is any spur they will represent the town in good shape. Fred Vaukirk, "Our Grocer," meets all prices, and generally discounts them notwithstanding outside cities are at

Do You Drink?

This may be a pertinent question and perhaps you don't care to answer it.

But if you do drink, don't forget that you must keep your kidneys strong and active, otherwise the poison of alcohol will collect in your blood and you will find yourself "off your base" with headache, backache, pain across the loins and feeling generally miserable.

Everybody knows alcohol is a poison.

Poisons that go into the body should come out.

The kidneys will filter out all poisons from the blood if they are kept active and well.

If you must drink, take occasionally a few doses of Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills for they give tone, strength and activity to your kidneys and will make a well man of you. They make pure, clean, life giving blood. Pure blood means health.

An Honest German's Opinion of Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills.

Neenah, Feb. 1st, 1897.

Those Sparagus Kidney Pills which I received of you are fully up to what you recommended them to be. My wife took the first dose, as she was badly troubled with lame back caused from her kidneys, and the next morning she felt better from the effects of them.

My neighbor complained of backache all the time. I told him I had some medicine that would help him. I gave him eight of your Sparagus Kidney Pills and he says he is going to get a box tomorrow. My wife says she will not be without them after this.

You may joyfully use my name as a recommender if you wish. CHRIS LUETH, Neenah, Wis.

Radical Economy in Michigan.

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 16.—The economical streak in the house has led to the introduction of a bill abolishing the state geological survey. Bills appropriating $40,000 for the relief of the Ontonagon fire sufferers, permitting the sale of quail purchased in another state, providing for a reformatory for women, and making the education of the blind compulsory, were introduced. A bill was read providing that no real estate shall be sold at mortgage sale for less than two-thirds of its value as fixed by an appraiser to be appointed by the Circuit court.

Several Officials Are Short.

Butler, Ind., Feb. 16.—Expert Ernest has filed a report of his examination of the books of DeKalb county and finds several officials short $30,000. Of this sum ex-Treasurer Fair is charged with nearly $12,000; ex-Auditor Coffinberry, $5,400; ex-Clerk Moody, $2,700. The names of the others who are short have not yet been made public, but it is stated on good authority that one ex-official is short nearly $4,000, another $3,000, another $600 and still another $900.

Sheriff Conceals Murderer GILL.

Marion, Ill., Feb. 16.—The feeling against Stephen Gill, the 17-year-old boy who killed Farmer Rader last Thursday evening and robbed him of $20, is still running high among the friends and neighbors of the murdered man. Talk of lynching him has been bold and loud, but a leader has been wanting. The sheriff has hidden the prisoner.

Michigan Silverites to Meet.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 16.—The silver politicians are beginning to arrive for the state conventions Wednesday. It is probable the Democrats, Populists and free silverites will form a combine, but the Populists have a candidate for justice in John O. Zable of Monroe county.

Hold Brief Legislative Sessions.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 16.—The senate met Monday afternoon at 5 o’clock without a quorum present. Before the reading of the journal was concluded an adjournment was taken until 10 a. m. to-day. The house met at 5 o’clock, but remained in session only a few minutes.

All the ladies who will act as clerks during the charity sale at our store Wednesday will be glad to see their friends. Bert, Bailey & Co.

MEETING A FIZZLE:
NO CHARGE MADE

meeting, on the strength of a mere rumor. Merely as a suggestion, and in order to get something tangible before the meeting, I will present the following resolution, and move its adoption.” The resolution printed above was then presented.

J. P. Baker’s Amendment.

“I second the motion,” said Richard Valentine.

“I move to amend the resolution by adding an apology to the company,” said J. P. Baker.

Mr. Nowlan offered to accept the amendment—if the meeting desired.

Mr. Lawson and Mr. Heath both protested against an apology, and said none was necessary.

There being no objection made to the resolution, Chairman Vankirk put the motion, and the resolution was adopted without dissent. The meeting then adjourned.

Said it was Politics.

A newspaper man made a protest after the meeting, and charged that the matter was one of politics. The republican papers were against the matter, he said, and the democratic papers for it, “because the mayor was a democrat.”

“I am a democrat myself” said Richard Valentine, “and I am against the proposition. There is no politics in it with me.”

Before the gathering dispersed, however, the newspaper man in question said that he did not expect Mayor Baines to attend the meeting, as he knew the mayor was not in favor of calling it.

And thus ends the story of “the big fake.”

MISTAKE IN THE RESOLUTION

Morning Paper Made The Citizens Disapprove of “Manner” Instead of “Matter.”

A mistake was made in the resolution adopted at the citizens meeting last night, by the morning paper. The resolution as presented closed as follows:

RESOLVED, by the citizens of Janesville, that they hereby express their disapproval of the ‘matter’ of issuing said call, and the alleged object thereof.

The morning paper’s version made the resolution disapprove of the ‘manner’ of issuing the call, which was quite another matter. That the call was issued in a proper manner—at the direction of the common council on Alderman Miltimore’s motion—there can be no dispute. The resolution was not aimed at the council, as the morning paper wishes to infer, but was presented for the reason that a mass meeting of citizens is “the course of last resort,” and is only supposed to interfere when all other means are exhausted. This was not the case this time, as no charges of any nature were presented to the meeting, and hence there was no reason why the people should have met.

SPURIOUS COINS IN SILVER.

They Are Being Put in Wide Circulation.

The fact that counterfeit silver coins containing more silver than the government’s output were being made and circulated has been confirmed by Andrew Mason, superintendent of the United States assay office in this city, says the New York Herald. Coins of the size, shape and general appearance of the legal tender dollar have been in wide and successful circulation in this country, and coins have been received at the offices of the secret service in San Francisco, Chicago and Buffalo, which were found to be spurious by their excessive weight and a defective milling process. The other features of the counterfeit coins were well executed and baffled detection except on close inspection. The profit in using even silver in counterfeit coins can be realized when one considers that silver bullion is worth today 65½ cents an ounce, or 480 grains, and that a silver dollar contains 412½ grains of silver. The head of this successful and clever band of counterfeiters is believed to be a man who was an under-superintendent of a silver mine in Montana, who was well known for his daring and cleverness. In a San Francisco saloon one night about two years ago he declared that a silver counterfeiter could reap a harvest by using the genuine metal in the coins he turned out. Two men, who were known to be San Francisco crooks, were with him. There were two San Francisco detectives present at the time and he miner was followed to Montana, where he disappeared and has since been lost sight of. The secret service agents in Chicago received information that a counterfeit plant was in operation in Montana and that the coins were being circulated widely in San Francisco, Chicago, Buffalo and New York. A man named Schuyler was arrested in Buffalo in March, 1895, for passing counterfeit coins. He was convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment. A San Francisco crook was arrested shortly after charged with being implicated in the output of the spurious coins, but no evidence could be procured against him and he was discharged. Since then the secret-service detectives of several cities have been looking for the Montana miner and his two companions.

A CRY OF WARNING.

“I suffered for years and years with womb and kidney trouble in their worst forms.

“I had terrible pains in my abdomen and back; could hardly drag myself around; had the ‘blues’ all the time, was cross to every one; but Lydia Pinkham’s Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me of all my pains.

“I cannot praise it enough, and cry aloud to all women that their suffering is unnecessary; go to your druggist and get a bottle that you may try it anyway. You owe this chance of recovery to yourself.” —Mrs. J. STENARD, 2218 Amber St., Kensington Phila., Pa.

Gold Democratic Call Issued.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 16.—The formal call was issued Monday for the sound-money Democratic convention to nominate regents and a judge in this city, March 3, when National Chairman W. D. Bynum will deliver an address.

The call says that all voters in sympathy with true Democracy and the Indianapolis platform are entitled to seats.

Called to London Tabernacle.

St. Louis, Feb. 16.—Rev. W. A. Foster, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, has resigned from that pastorate to accept a call from the West London Tabernacle of London, England, which is the largest church of the Christian denomination outside of the United States. He will sail March 6.

Distrust Ends Bolt Trust.

Cleveland, Ohio, Feb. 16.—It is stated that the big machine bolt trust has gone to the wall. It comprised all the leading machine bolt manufacturers in the country. The cause of the downfall of the trust was sharp competition forced by the distrust and jealousy of some of its members.

CITIZENS DISAPPROVE OF THE COURSE TAKEN.

No Grievance Against the Railroad Was Presented, So There Was Nothing To Discuss—John Heath Told of the Changes—No One To Call Session To Order.

WHEREAS, A meeting of the citizens of Janesville has been called without due authority, and on no positive information of any nature, to discuss the subject of changes in the train service on the C. & N. W. road, and

WHEREAS, No one appeared to father said call, and no grounds therefore are given, be it

RESOLVED, By the citizens of Janesville, that they hereby express their disapproval of the matter of the issuing of said call, and the alleged object thereof.

The above resolution was adopted without a dissenting voice at the meeting of citizens at the council chamber last night.

No one was on hand to present any grievance, and in consequence there was nothing to discuss. The meeting was called for seven-thirty o'clock, and Mayor Baines—who did not approve the course adopted—was not present. Neither were any of the aldermen present, so after waiting until eight o'clock for some one to appear, Capt. W. T. Van Kirk was requested to call the meeting to order, and did so. On Richard Valentine's motion, Mr. Van Kirk was made chairman.

Mr. Van Kirk's Remarks.

In taking the chair, Mr. Van Kirk said he could hardly state the purpose for which the meeting was called. He had been asked prior to the meeting to call a meeting of the Business Men's Association, and had done so. Then Mr. Moulton had told him that there was a misunderstanding, and the meeting had been called off. Since then some people had told him that things were not as Mr. Moulton had stated. He had not seen Mr. Moulton since. The right to protest, he said, was inalienable, when ever there was a grievance. He thanked the people for the courtesy extended, and declared the meeting open for business.

Mr. Heath Called For.

"I see Mr. John Heath is here," said George Kastner, "I suggest that he be given the floor. He can tell us about the matter and we all know we will not misrepresent things to us."

Master Mechanic Heath, who had come up from Chicago with Division Superintendent Lawson, then arose. He said he was still one of the citizens of Janesville. Mr. Lawson was present and he yielded the floor to him. Mr. Lawson said he wished to know who the complainants were and the nature of the complaints made before he could say much about them.

Nobody explained what was wanted so Mr. Lawson sat down.

R. Valentine Speaks.

"I think Mr. Lawson's point is well taken," said Mr. Richard Valentine. "I think this meeting is called for a very small matter. No one is here who had any hand in calling it, and I think the best thing we can do is to adjourn. This meeting seems to have been called on a simple rumor. It is none of the city's business. If any man has been discharged, I have not heard of it. The next thing we know public meetings will be called when some woman discharges her hired girl."

Mr. Kastner said that he understood that some changes had been made and he would ask Mr. Heath to explain them.

Mr. Heath Explains.

Mr. Heath then explained the changes, saying that they were made to decrease expenses. Under the rule, there was a saving of power, as engines ran longer distances. Long runs were the rule on the Eastern roads, and in this respect the C. & N. W. had been a little old fashioned. The company did not want to discommode its men, but allowed them, according to their age, to select any run on the Wisconsin division. The company would make any changes that the men wanted.

"I have no desire to punish the city of Janesville," he said. "I expect to live here again some day, and I have the city's interest at heart. In fact, I have been sending engines here to be fixed that Janesville men may be employed."

Engineers His Old Friends.

"I have no desire to punish these engineers," he continued. "They are my old friends and co-workers. We are saving on this division, just what we are saving on other divisions. The crews affected by these changes can have other runs if they wish. I would be very glad to have every engineer in my territory make more than a full week's mileage every week. There are 185 engines on this division, worth $8,000 apiece. If we can do their work with 160 engines, the saving will be a large one. That is all there is to it. I will take a committee of citizens to Chicago, if this meeting will appoint them."

Resolution Is Adopted.

"From what I can learn," said Burton F. Nowlan, "The Chicago & Northwestern Company is doing just what other corporations and business firms are doing during these hard times—reducing expenses. No complaint is made regarding any other firm or corporation. No one is here to present any charges against the railway company. The matter is not one to be discussed at a meeting of citizens, it is too small a matter. The city is asking the company to build a new depot, and expects other favors from the company. It will not better the chances of getting these improvements to attack the company through a citizens

KINDLED A FIRE WITH KEROSENE

BUT CONLEY'S HAIR WILL GROW AGAIN.

HISTORY Repeats Itself at the Hotel Myers Early This Morning—Young Man Who Used the Ost Tried Method, Accomplished the Usual Result—Painfully Burned.

Thomas Conley tried to "kindle a fire with kerosene" at the Hotel Myers this morning, and history repeated itself.

The explosion occurred at 5:30 this morning. Conley is now nursing a painfully burned face and head while landlords Johnson & Donahue are wondering how the hotel escaped destruction by fire.

Conley is a lad of but eighteen years of age. He has been working as "yard man" at the hotel for two weeks. On Tuesday morning it is his duty to start a fire in the laundry room which located on the third floor. This morning Conley used the kerosene method, and poured the oil on the ashes. The effect was electrical.

Flames shot toward the ceiling. The young man's head and face were painfully burned, his eye lashes and a good portion of his hair being singed off.

The colored cooks in the kitchen, hearing the explosion, rushed to Conley's assistance and prevented a spread of the flames.

Dr. E. F. Woods was called and dressed the burns while Officer John Brown conveyed Conley to his home, 302 South River street.

Fred Beyers, aged 58, fell at the door last night, and dislocated his right elbow. Officer Appleby took Beyers to Dr. Joe Whiting's office, in Russell's block, and his arm was dressed. Beyers resides near the Leyden house. He was taken home.

ARIZONA'S ICE CAVES.
Only Small Men and Women Can Enter Them.

These curiosities are situated about ten miles south of the town of Flagstaff and not more than sixty miles north of the geographical center of the territory. It is the last place in the world where one would look for caves, for there is not a mountain within a dozen miles, and the rolling country is densely wooded. The entrance is from the level plain and is down through an opening apparently made by the caving-in of the crust which formerly covered the subterranean caverns. This sink or basin is probably seventy-five feet in diameter and twenty-five deep, and the bottom is filled with large, irregular boulders of black malapais or volcanic rock. Admittance to the caves is gained by crawling through and under these boulders, the opening being low, narrow, rough and precipitous. None but small men and new women may enter, for one must crawl backward through a passage just large enough to squeeze one's body through, and then drop some six feet in darkness and faith to the floor of the first chamber. Here the air is decidedly cooler, and a little ice is seen in the cracks of the irregular walls. We continue our descent down a steep declivity and over huge masses of rock to room No. 2, where a resident of the vicinity is discovered filling his pail with pure ice for use at home. Here is considerable ice on the floor and in the crevices, but not in solid masses. The air is cold and damp and we are reminded of a regular professional ice-house. The passage to the third and lowest chamber is even more perilous and difficult than any yet encountered. The exit from the room above is through a narrow crevice in the wall, which inclines outward, and immediately over a perpendicular drop of five or six feet, and considerable ingenuity and agility are required both in descending and ascending to avoid getting stuck in the jagged opening. But one is well repaid for his efforts and risk, for the room below is a veritable ice palace, although not more than eight by twelve feet. The floor is of solid ice and the walls are wainscoted with sheets of pure ice that sparkle in the candle-light like diamonds and crystals. There are passages leading on and down from this chamber lined with solid ice, but no one knows how far they go or what they lead to, for they are not large enough even to crawl through.

The Place Where the Sun Jumps a Day.
Chatham island, lying off the coast of New Zealand, in the South Pacific ocean, is peculiarly situated, as it is one of the habitable points of the globe where the day of the week changes. It is just in the line of demarcation between dates. There, at high 12 Sunday, noon ceases, and instantly Monday meridian begins. Sunday comes into a man's house on the east side and becomes Monday by the time it passes out the western door. A man sits down to his noonday dinner on Sunday, and it is Monday noon before he finishes it. There Saturday is Sunday and Sunday is Monday, and Monday becomes suddenly transferred into Tuesday. It is a good place for people who have lost much time, for by taking an early start they can always get a day ahead on Chatham island. It took philosophers and geographers a long time to settle the puzzle of where Sunday noon ceased and Monday noon began with a man traveling west fifteen degrees an hour, or with the sun. It is to be hoped that the next English arctic expedition will settle the other mooted question: "Where will one stop who travels northwest continually?"

Laughing as Medicine.

There is a woman in Milpitas, the victim of several crushing sorrows, who has a novel cure for despondency, indigestion, insomnia and kindred ills. It is unpatented. She determined one day to throw off the gloom which was making life a burden in and about her, and established a rule that she would laugh three times a day, whether occasion presented or not. She trained herself to laugh heartily at the least provocation, and without one would retire to her room and make merry by herself. Now she is in excellent health and buoyant spirits, and her home has become a sunny and delightful abode. Husband, children, neighbors and friends were gradually infected with mirth every day, and now all of them are healthy, happy and wise.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Uses for Old Horse Cars.

There is a constant demand for old horse cars. They are sold for summer shelters in rural districts, for hunters' camps, for lodges by solitary lakes, for cabins on houseboats and for the homes of campers. They are found everywhere, sometimes as annexes to pretentious cottages, and sometimes as summer cottages. Occasionally a number of them are grouped together as the dwelling place of one or more families, and in this way they make a commodious summer home.—New York Tribune.

Preaching and Practice.

"There are political crises, Mrs. Hobbs, in which it becomes a man's duty to bolt."

"Yes, Mr. Hobbs; but I take notice I'm the one that always has to get out of bed in my bare feet to see if the door is locked."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mining Lumber.

Instead of going into the woods and cutting trees and sawing them into log lengths, the lumbermen of Cape May, in New Jersey, mine their lumber. Ages and ages ago a forest of cedar trees waved its branches in the breezes about Cape May. The sea is supposed to have broken the barrier which separated it from the trees and overturned them by undermining their roots. Their weight caused them to sink in the soft muck where they had stood and the mold of centuries of leaves closed over them. One day a man in passing through the swamp found one of the cedar logs and when he had dug it out it was as sound as when it grew hundreds of years before. Of course it was very valuable as lumber and from that time on the mining of logs has kept a great many men busy every summer. They locate the trees by plunging a long iron rod into the soft muck. When they have "struck wood" they begin digging until the mine is laid bare and the logs are then hauled away to the sawmill. Most of the trees are from ten to twelve feet under ground, but some of them have been found as deep as ninety feet down.

An Angel Unaware.

There was a great crush at the Grand Central station, and when the nice-looking old lady got off the train she had entered at Albany she looked a trifle bewildered.

"Madame," said the polite traveller, "permit me."

He offered the lady his arm, took her baggage in hand and elbowed his way through the crowd to a cab.

"Young man," said she, "you are very kind. I'd like to know your name."

"Oh, never mind," said he. "I only did what I should wish a fellow-passenger to do for my mother, in a crowd like this." She insisted, and he gave her his card. She handed him hers and ordered the driver to drive on. When he looked at the card the young man found it bore the name of Hetty Green, the richest woman in the world.—New York World.

The Rest Accepted.

An English journal tells an anecdote concerning a wealthy Irish lady, whose summer house was situated near a garrison town in Ireland. A few days ago she sent an invitation to Capt. A. to take tea with her, saying that "the pleasure of Capt. A.'s company is respectfully requested, etc."

To her astonishment she received by an orderly the following note: "Enlisted men John and Smith have been detailed to do guard duty, but the remainder of Capt. A.'s company accept with pleasure Mrs. N.'s polite invitation."
